

Curry County is situated on one of the most breathtaking coastlines in Southern Oregon. In addition to experiencing our windswept headlands, illuminating sunsets, and mountainous splendor, you can also enjoy salmon fishing, rafting, hiking, and exploring miles of wild rivers and secluded beaches. Combine these assets with employment in an office where the prosecuting team places a high value on your role, and you have the ideal combination!

If you are looking for a challenging yet rewarding career in public service, this position is perfect for you! Develop professional legal strategies for the prosecution of misdemeanor and felony cases in your capacity as a Deputy District Attorney. An aptitude for trial work is vital. You would be joining a District Attorney's office that is dedicated, hardworking, and takes pride in upholding the Constitution and laws of the State of Oregon. The office is committed to preserving the safety of the public, protecting the rights of crime victims, and pursuing justice for all citizens with skill, honor, and integrity.
